A brilliant start for Year 2!

What a brilliant start to the year for Year 2! So far this year, we have covered a whole range of topics, and the children's knowledge has been outstanding! We are now number bond masters, spelling superstars and we are reading very advanced texts in guided read! The children have started as if they have always been here! In science we have been exploring living things and what life needs to survive, we have been mapping the world in Geography, and learning all about the Bible in RE. We even had a superb ice cream afternoon to celebrate all our hard work so far this term! Looking ahead, we are extremely excited about the Nativity and all of the festive fun coming up soon. Breakfast with Santa has already been on the lips of some children! Well done Year 2, and long may your progress and good attitudes continue!

Mrs Winstanley's Column

Dear Parents and Carers,

It's been a fast and joy-filled week in school as we've focused on well-being in the lead-up to Mental Health Awareness Day. The absolute highlight was Wednesday's Well-Being Wiggle — a huge thank you to Mr Marren, my partner in crime, and to all the wonderful parents and children who came along and wiggled their little hearts out. Pure joy from start to finish. Another standout moment was our Wear What Makes You Happy Day: a glorious parade of cosy pyjamas (I fully support this lifestyle choice), sparkling princess dresses, and of course an impressive collection of football kits. The happiness was infectious and the children wore it beautifully. Just a shame about the typical British weather! 😂

And next week, we're gearing up for the excitement of DT week, where our budding young designers will be putting their creativity and problem-solving skills to the test. From ingenious litter pickers to moving cars and cleverly engineered bridges, there will be no end to the imagination and innovation on display. It's going to be a brilliant celebration of practical learning and hands-on fun — we really will have it all going on! 😊 Apologies to Mr Taylor and team clean for the mess in advance!

I can't quite believe we only have two weeks left — this term has absolutely flown. Thank you, as always, for your energy, kindness and support. Wishing everyone a lovely, restful weekend before we dive into another busy and brilliant week ahead. ❤️

Mrs Winstanley and Team Trinity 😊

SEND IAS
Information, advice and support
for Special Educational Needs and Disability

Who are we and what do we do?

SENDIAS is a statutory service and operates confidentially from the Local Authority to provide impartial and unbiased support to children and families across Lancashire.

Family Support

The service offers free information, advice, and support regarding SEND across the spectrum of education, health and social care, for example: EHCP processes, paperwork, communications with schools, and tribunal's.

Empowering families

The SENDIAS goal is to empower families to make informed decisions and have their voices heard throughout the SEND journey.

Service changes:

The team has recently expanded and we are currently we are reviewing the service offer following service user feedback to make it more flexible, accessible and empowering for families across Lancashire. These changes allow us to reach more families and offer consistent , high-quality accessible information advice and support across county.

Neu Way Support NW

Introducing Neu Way Support

Support for families of children and young people with neurodevelopmental needs

From 6 July, families across Lancashire and South Cumbria will be able to access Neu Way Support, a new service for families of children and young people aged 0–25 who may have autism, ADHD or other neurodevelopmental differences. The service is available based on need, which means you do not need a diagnosis to get support.

How can Neu Way Support help?

Neu Way Support can provide:

- Advice and guidance
- Information about local services and support
- Help to understand what support may be available for your child or young person
- Practical resources and tools
- Support to identify next steps and develop a personalised plan
- Signposting to community, education, health and voluntary sector services

Every family is different, so support will be tailored to your individual needs.

Who is the service for?

Neu Way Support is available for families of children and young people aged 0–25 who:

- Have concerns about autism, ADHD or other neurodevelopmental differences
- Are waiting for an assessment
- Have recently received a diagnosis
- Would benefit from information, advice or support to help navigate services

You do not need a diagnosis or to be on a waiting list to access support

How do I access the service?

Families can refer themselves directly or ask a professional to help them access support.

Building support for the future

Neu Way Support is part of a wider programme to improve support for children and young people with neurodevelopmental needs across Lancashire and South Cumbria. The service is being introduced in phases, with plans to continue developing and strengthening support for families over time.

As a parent or carer, you know your child better than anyone. If you've noticed changes in how they communicate, learn, interact or experience the world, it's natural to have questions. You may be wondering what those differences mean, where to seek advice or how to find the right support.

Neu Way Support is a service that recognises that every family's journey is unique. For many, the path to understanding their child's needs can feel overwhelming, with long waiting times, a lot of information to navigate and uncertainty about what to do next.

You don't need a diagnosis to access the service. Whether you're at the beginning of your journey, awaiting an assessment, have recently received a diagnosis, or simply need someone to talk things through with, we're here to help.

Our aim is to ensure every family can access trusted advice, practical support and local connections at the earliest opportunity, helping you feel informed, supported and confident about the next steps.

You can access Neu Way Support whether you're:

- Just starting to have questions?
- Waiting for an assessment?
- Recently received a diagnosis?
- Looking for practical advice?

Every family's journey is different, but you don't have to navigate it alone. Scan the QR code to find out more
