Megan Coyle Art

Well, hello everyone! What a busy and fun-filled week Year 4 have had. We have been looking at the artist Megan Coyle who creates collage art using magazine strips. We used the technique of 'layering' to create work based on her style.

The children loved creating their animal collages and the results were truly awesome as I'm sure you'll agree when you have looked at the photos below. In English, we have been writing our own story based on The Selfish Giant by Oscar Wilde. We have had titles such as The Selfish Ogre, The Selfish Goblin, and my personal favourite, The Selfish Vampire! We have looked at using personification like Oscar Wilde and the children have wowed me with their imagination and skill - an example of this was: 'The burning hot sun continued to spread her golden, scorching arms and her golden robe across the surface of the earth.' How amazing is that! In Geography, we have been looking at transport in cities and the effect congestion and pollution have on us and our lungs.

Lucky for us, we live in Skelmersdale and are surrounded by lots of lovely, green fields. We also made time for a ten minute game of Stuck in the Mud outside which was great fun and a well deserved break after working so hard. Well done Year 4. We've had a brilliant week and the amount of learning that has taken place has been immense.

Mr Currie's Column

Dear parents, carers and children,

It's been another great week in school. If you get chance, please take a look at the Twitter feed to see some of the things which have been going on. Thank you so much for your patience with the Weduc Parent App. We are nearly there now! The app is brilliant because everything is in the one place – something which many parents have requested. Thank you!

Walt Disney once said 'There is more treasure in books than in all the pirate's loot on Treasure Island.' I love this quote. Every single child deserves to be a fluent reader so that they can experience the benefit of a love of reading. Reading opens so many doors, not only to a successful career, but a happy life. On our journey back to 'normality' it's time to focus on promoting reading as a 'habit' once again. I have written to all parents this week asking for your support in promoting reading at home. Please have a read through the letter and ask me if you have any questions. It's so good to know we have your support – we can't do it without you! I've already had offers from parents willing to come in to read with the children - thank you.

We are getting ready for the much loved Trinity May Day Celebrations. At the moment, we are not sure whether or not we will be able to have an audience. I will do everything in my power to safely allow parents to enjoy this event with us. It simply won't be the same if you're not there. I will keep you posted.

And finally, God shines His love on you ... do you know that? He beams on you a 'peace that passes all understanding'. We may be surrounded by a sea of problems, but are we face to face with Jesus (not virtual but really face to face). As long as we focus on Jesus we are safe.. If we gaze too much at our problems we will be in danger of sinking under their weight ... when we do do that, simply call out to Jesus – 'Help me, Jesus!' ... and He will.

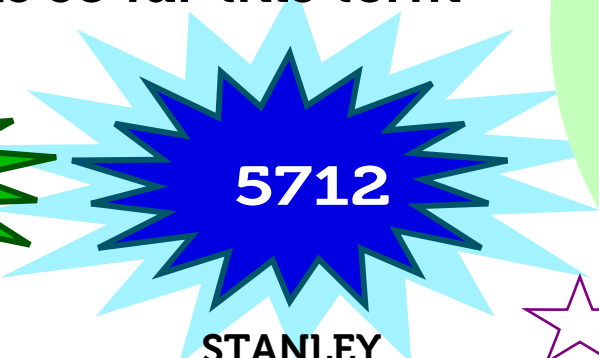

Have a lovely weekend, Mr Currie

Winning house in July gets a trip to the cinema.

Over half of our parents have now signed up to Weduc!! Thank you.

As Weduc is the main communication platform, it is very important that parents sign up as soon as possible to avoid missing any relevant information. Clubs can be booked, fees paid, snack payments can be made and ALL messages and letters will be posted via the Weduc app.

If you experience any problem when signing up, please contact school, or Weduc direct, on 01509221349 / email: support@weduc.co.uk.

FABULOUS SCHOOL PHOTOS

We want you to be really happy with your photos. So this week Helen Riley will be capturing some special moments.

Helen is a professional portrait photographer based in West Lancashire with over 15 years' local and international experience, Helen has a personal approach in which she dedicates days, not just hours, to shoots. Really exciting, and I can't wait to see the results. You will receive a text to let you know the day your child will be photographed.

Other family groupings will take place on 17th May
